Pro Economy | orca

Copper and Silver Water Treatment

History

2002

Great Ormond Street install their first Orca. They would go on to install another 9 systems to treat their site.

2009

Founding Director Birgitta Bedford is awarded a Ph.D in Legionella Control

2013

Windsor Castle installs their first Orca system to treat the Queen's apartments. They go on to install a further 10 systems and now have Orcas treating their entire site

2015

Our cloud-based Water Management System, Tetras, launches in beta phase. It now runs the company's entire sampling, data, tasking and scheduling workload

2017

Addenbrooke's Hospital joins
ProEconomy's client portfolio with two
Orca units to treat the site's water

1993

Company founded

2004

The European Space Agency HQ in Holland installs their first Orca system. They now have them installed across their entire site, including a Barracuda unit that treats their cooling towers.

2012

ProEconomy's client base hits 100 sites

2014

John Radcliffe installs their first system. They would go on to install two more and now have Orca units treating all their water

2016

ProEconomy's client base hits 200 sites

2017

The Royal Free come on board and install Orca units to treat the entire site's water

Pro Economy | orca Copper and Silver Water Treatment

History

1993	Company founded	-
2002	Great Ormond Street install their first Orca. They would go on to install another 9 systems to treat their site.
2004	The European Space Agency HQ in Holland installs their first Orca system. They now have them installed across their entire site, including a Barracuda unit that treats their cooling towers.
2009	Founding Director Birgitta Bedford is awarded a Ph.D in Legionella Control
2012	ProEconomy's client base hits 100 sites
2013	Windsor Castle installs their first Orca system to treat the Queen's apartments. They go on to install a further 10 systems and now have Orcas treating their entire site
2014	John Radcliffe installs their first system. They would go on to install two more and now have Orca units treating all their water	# *#
2015	Our cloud-based Water Management System, Tetras, launches in beta phase. It now runs the company's entire sampling, data, tasking and scheduling workload
2016	ProEconomy's client base hits 200 sites
2017	Addenbrooke's Hospital joins ProEconomy's client portfolio with two Orca units to treat the site's water	#*#
2017	The Royal Free come on board and install Orca units to treat the entire site's water	# *#